

Mystical France

Experience the Heart of Mary Magdalene

Hopefully, this pictorial will give you some idea of the splendor... physical, emotional and spiritual... of life at La Val Dieu, the Valley of God. The images were taken from our last 6 trips there over a 9-year period from 1999 to 2007. We hope you enjoy these images and accompanying story line.

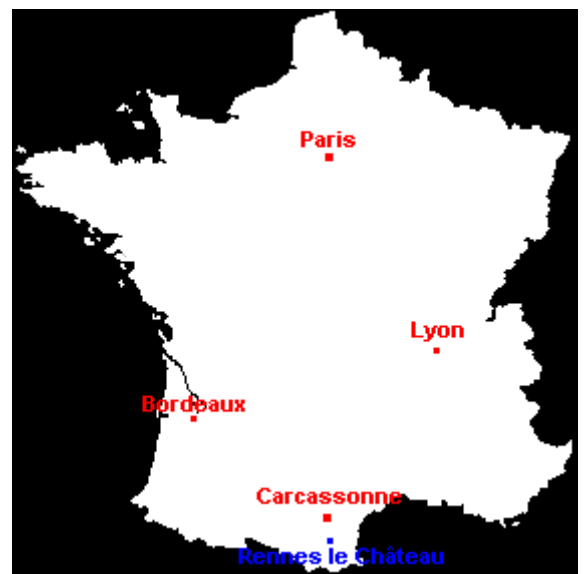

Our France exploration started out when we went to France to study Medical Aromatherapy at Golgema.

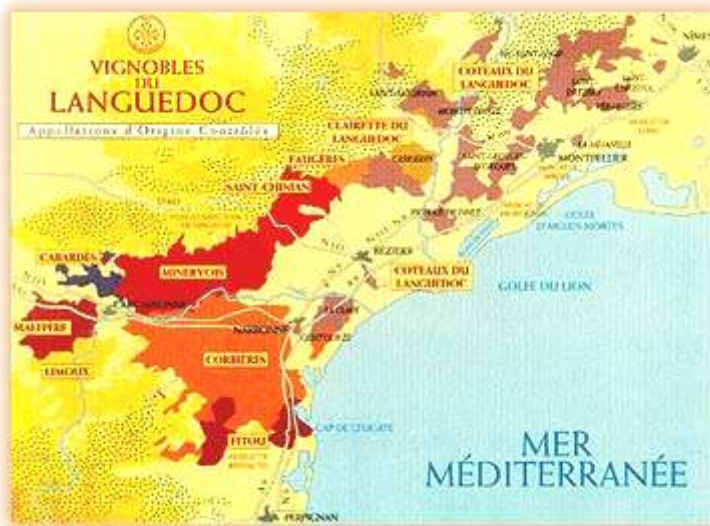

Here to the left is a picture of us with Shreshta's hand on an infusion of St. John's Wort.

During the end of this trip we went to La Val Dieu to explore the Magdalene tradition whose deep roots connect to the Gnostic Jesus, the Cathars and the Templars of the Languedoc.

La Val Dieu is a very special place on earth. Very close to Rennes le Chateau... shown in blue on the map to the right, below Carcassonne... La Val Dieu means the Valley of God. Appropriately named, this magical place has been the home we have lived in and the base from which we have explored the sacred lands of the Languedoc. Your "plant whisperer" guide, Shreshta, has made her 29-flower essence kit called the Languedoc Flower Essences, from the flowers growing in many parts of this region.

The region known as the Languedoc signifying the language of Oc (the whole area used to be called Oc) is such a beautiful and pristine part of France and it's history is filled with both tragedy (the Albigensian crusades) as well as triumph (the visiting by Mary Magdalene, "the Woman who Knew the All and the spiritual Oneness of the area that saw Jews, Christians, Gnostics, Cathars, followers of the Magdalene, Celts and others all practicing their faith in peace and harmony. Many authors have said that, had it not been for the crusades, the Renaissance would have started 200 years earlier in the Languedoc.

Our sacred journey together includes the study of energy healing in nature and part of this study includes these sacred flower essences, which are imbued with the divine healing energies of Mary Magdalene, the Woman who knew the All.

One of these 34 Languedoc Flower Essences is Poppy and it is used for Spiritual Exaltation. Taking Poppy flower essence helps to lift our consciousness so that we may experience the exaltation of the spirit in order to put the Will of God in action through honouring

God and Nature and Love in All that is.

One of the many discoveries we have made is the possibility that the area around La Val Dieu has a deep connection to ancient Egypt. On one of our journeys there we met Graham Simmans, who recently passed on. Graham is the co-author of Rex Deus, which is on our recommended reading list. Graham was a lay Egyptologist and spent many years in Egypt on archaeological digs.

From Genesis by David Woods

Graham had discovered what he was sure were Egyptian artefacts on his land at Rennes le Chateau. Graham had hypothesized that in ancient times the mound that is now Rennes le Chateau housed an Isian Temple and across the Valley toward La Val Dieu was a Temple dedicated to Osiris. This certainly fits in with the possibility that Mary Magdalene, believed herself to be an Isian and Nazarene priestess and flower essence healer, visited the area around Rennes le Chateau. Shreshta had a vision of Mary Magdalene in a place nearby in Rennes Les Bains where Shreshta made Blue Gromwell, another of her Languedoc Flower essences.

In a highly recommended recent novel written by Kathleen McGowan entitled The Expected One, Ms. McGowan posits the belief that Mary Magdalene may have temporarily resided in an ancient Visigoth tower in the area just below Rennes le Chateau.

Be that as it may, Berenger Sauniere, the enigmatic priest who lived there in 1891, later restored a dilapidated church on the grounds of Rennes le Chateau that had been dedicated to the Magdalene in 1059. Later, when Sauniere mysteriously came into huge sums of money he completed the restoration of the church and added a Tower dedicated to Mary Magdalene.

Robert is standing in front of the Tour Magdala in the picture above.

Now is the Age when the Goddess has returned and she is re-emerging in full view outwardly as well as inwardly in order to heal our wounded psyches and restore the feminine to her rightful position of spiritual and physical equality. There are now many who feel that the possibility that Mary Magdalene was the wife and spiritual partner of Yeshua (Jesus) is very real.

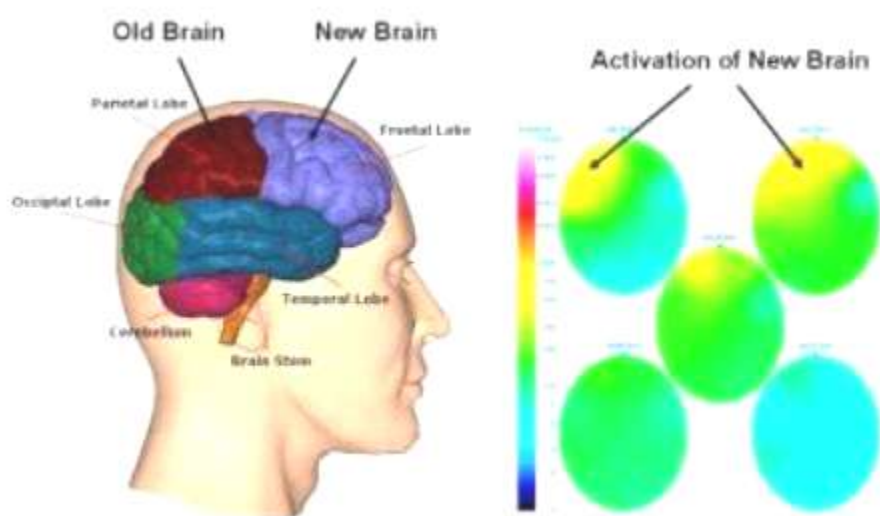

Alex Grey's Sophia from Sacred Mirrors

One of the main emphases of our journey over these last nine years has been to help support, encourage, and be an instrument of this divine feminine resurgence on the planet. Having been involved in God/Goddess ceremonial processes in Sedona and Scottsdale Arizona for a period of 2 years before we moved to Australia, Shreshta and I are deeply grateful for the opportunity to initiate people in the Magdalene Goddess lineage on the land sacred to her heart.

Another blessing you will receive on our Sacred Site Tour and Energy Healing Seminar is the Oneness Blessing that comes from a living Avataric couple, the husband and wife team of Bhagavan and Amma.

This Oneness Blessing has been gratefully received the world over by millions of ordinary people, famous actors and actresses, motivational coaches such as Tony Robbins, and by Buddhists, Sufis, followers of Islam, Hindus of many denominations, and by Christians, including the Secretary to the Pope, and Ron Roth, a modern day Christian mystic, among others.

Studied by some prominent research scientists such as Christian Opitz and Erik Hoffmann, the Oneness Blessing helps to change brain physiology bringing about the cessation of the sense of separation and the growth of the feeling and experience of causeless love and causeless joy (love and joy spontaneously arising and not dependent on any outside circumstances).

Being grounded by the Goddess energies that pervade the LaValDieu region we greatly enjoy her flowers, organic fruits, organic vegetables, cheeses, organic wines and splendid vegetarian cuisine prepared by Pat Cooper, our main host for the journey.

I am a former international vegetarian chef and I highly and thoroughly recommend Pat's cooking as some of the best vegetarian food I have ever tasted.

We'll be doing plenty of hiking, so please prepare a little for this. No hike is too strenuous and you can take your time... there is no contest for who arrives at the destination first.

We will walk the land to explore the rich Cathar, Templar, and Gnostic Yeshua and Magdalene traditions of the Languedoc. The longest hike is up the famous "bog" known as Montsegur, which was the last Cathar stronghold in the century-long Albigensian crusade.

Shreshta will gift the group with her skills as a reader of the Akashic Records, a skill she applied to tune in to the uses of the Languedoc Flower Essences, and to share some of the hidden history of the area. The Cathars were followers of the divine feminine and the proponents of the simple hands-on healing and spiritual tradition of Sri Isha (the name recorded for Yeshua in the Ladak Monastery that Yeshua is believed to have visited during his travels to India).

The Black Madonna in the church at Montsegur shown to the right is perhaps symbolic of the dark skinned Goddess child of the union of Yeshua and Mary Magdalene who grew up in France and is perhaps responsible for the continuity of the Davidic bloodline in Europe.

Anointment Healing™ is another energy healing study we will explore on our journey. This sacred healing approach contains many elements from the vast history of Vibrational Healing, including spiritual healing from Egyptian Sufism, anointing the body with sacred essential oils from the Sufi as well as Magdalene lineage, 5 Element balancing and prenatal clearing from Taoist Chinese medicine, chakra balancing from ancient Ayurveda, and sound healing from many ancient traditions too numerous to mention.

We will visit the local farmers market in Esperaza, enjoy a refreshing drink, and shop for lunch foods for our picnic later on that day.

Then we'll head off for Rennes Les Bains to picnic in the area where Shreshta had the vision of Mary Magdalene.

There are many "source waters" in the area, termed Les Source de Madeleine, where high-energy vortexian waters come right out of the mountains.

We will also visit the Throne of Isis for a very special ceremony in the woods above Rennes Les Bains and later bathe in the beautiful waters coming out of the mountains in a strong stream a foot or more wide.

The photo to the right was taken inside the old fortified city of Carcassonne (called La Cité).

Established as a Cathar diocese in 1167, Viscount Raimon-Roger Trencavel, the Lord of both Beziers and Carcassonne, and a strong defender of the Cathars, moved into the fortified Old City in 1209 as the Albigensian crusade advanced on Beziers.

The large and prosperous Jewish community of Beziers fled with Trencavel to Carcassonne as well.

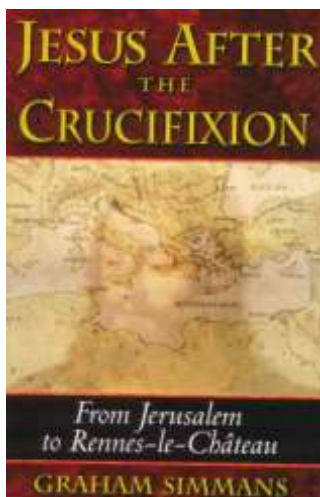

On a lighter note, 3 of the women on tour enjoy some refreshments at the finest hotel in La Cité in Carcassonne.

Later in the evening we enjoy our one restaurant meal together at one on the many wonderful eateries in Carcassonne.

The day we visit Carcassonne is usually the biggest shopping day of the tour.

If we get lucky, and we have been VERY, VERY LUCKY... we get to meet other brilliant authors like Henry Lincoln, who we met in 2007. Henry is the author of many books, including his book which launched the whole modern interest in Mary Magdalene.

We also met with Ingrid Riedel-Karp who completed and published Graham Simman's last book before he passed on. It's a fabulous read!

"This book is a testament to Simmans' lifetime of devotion to seeking out the truth. Contentious without being confrontational, this book will by its very nature be controversial, appealing to the broad audience now alert to such mysteries, following The Da Vinci Code. Above all, it will be valued as a book that will make the reader think."

- Lynn Picknet & Clive Prince, authors of The Templar Revelation and The Sion Revelation

Yeshua said,

"When you make the two one, and when you make the inside like the outside, and the outside like the inside, and the above like the below, and when you make the male and the female one and the same...
then you will enter the Kingdom of God."

- Gospel of Thomas

All this and more will unfold on this sacred journey of a lifetime. We look forward to being with you at LaValDieu in great joy, relaxation, rejuvenation, self-discovery, healing, fun, and oneness.

Robert and Shreshta

+618 8379 1331

Oneheart@tpg.com.au

Adelaide Australia

France Energy Healing & Sacred Site Tour